

The Heart of a Lion

Music and Lyrics

© 2003 Gregory Wilburn Amerind

(Youth)

To everyone who's come before
We make a vow this day,
We will not rest until our quest is through.
The rising sun within our hearts
Will help us know the way
As step-by-step we build the world anew.

With the heart of a lion
We can do anything
Cross any ocean
Climb any mountain
Whatever the journey brings
With the roar of a lion
We will face any fear
This is our promise,
This is our moment,
Starting now,
Starting here.

(Adults)

We speak to those who lost their lives
Because of someone's hate,
To loved ones left behind with only pain.
Your spirits will inspire us
To redesign our fate.
We'll make sure your loss was not in vain.

With the heart of a lion
We can do anything
Cross any ocean
Climb any mountain
Whatever the journey brings
With the roar of a lion
We will face any fear

(All)

This is our promise,
This is our moment,
Starting now,
Starting here.

Children are the beacon,
On the darkest night they are the brightest light.
Children know the future,
They will lead us there, let them take us where we all find peace and joy!

Adults

With the heart of a lion
We can do anything
Cross any ocean, climb any mountain
Whatever the journey brings
With the roar of a lion
We will face any fear

This is our moment
Starting now.
Starting now,
Starting here and now!

Youth

Peace and joy
We can do anything
On our own
Whatever the journey brings
With the roar of a lion

This is our promise,
Starting here and now
Starting here and now!
