

Heart To Heart

Wayne Green and Brian Potter

We'll be talkin' heart to heart.
We'll be walkin' side by side.
Climbin' every mountain to the top,
Crossin' every river deep and wide.
Day by day, come what may,
That's the way that peace will start,
Hand in hand, side by side,
Heart to heart.

The world's a lonely place
(When you just can't find a friend)
No one knows your name
(And the nights don't ever end
You wake up tomorrow
(Tryin' to begin again)
And everything's the same.
(Oh, oh)
You've got trouble and sorrow,
You need someone to care.
I'll be there for you,
Dividing it by two,
It'll never be too much to bear.

We'll be talkin' heart to heart.
We'll be walkin' side by side.
Climbin' every mountain to the top,
Crossin' every river deep and wide.
Day by day, come what may,
That's the way that peace will start,
Hand in hand, side by side,
Heart to heart.

We've got a job to do
(Giving hope to everyone)
No one's done before
(Gotta walk before we run)
Ain't gonna be easy
(Not when all is said and done)
To do away with war.
(Oh, oh)

But if we get together
And try again today,
When they write the book
About the road we took,
Here's what history is gonna say.

They were talkin' heart to heart.
They were walkin' side by side.
Climbin' every mountain to the top,
Crossin' every river deep and wide.
Day by day, come what may,
That's the way that peace will start,
Hand in hand, side by side,
Heart to heart.

Hand in hand, side by side,
Heart to heart.

Hand in hand, side by side,
Heart to heart.

Heart to heart!
